Kevin Fitzgerald was born and raised in St. Louis, Missouri, in a large Catholic family. At age 20, Kevin, along with his parents and six siblings, all came to faith in Jesus for eternal life. He and his wife, Cindy, served the Lord as missionaries for 15 years in Ecuador, South America, where they focused on evangelism, church planting and discipleship. This involved elder training and establishing New Testament biblical eldership-led churches. For the last 14 years, Kevin has served as an elder and full-time worker at Fenton Crossing Bible Chapel in St. Louis. Additionally, he is involved in camp ministry, Bible conferences and is one of the founding members of Biblical Eldership Resources. Kevin and Cindy have four adult children and seven grandchildren.

Bryan Ford and his wife Joy lived in China for 15 years and now reside in Wichita, Kansas where they are helping with International students who attend Sunrise Christian Academy and are fellowshipping at Community Bible Chapel.
