Steve Sanchez is a Professor of Bible at the Moody Bible Institute. He previously taught at Emmaus Bible College for 11 years. Steve was saved as a child at Evergreen Gospel Chapel in Brooklyn, NY. He and his wife Julie have been married for almost 20 years and they have four children.

Jeffrey Smith met his wife Theresa while attending Maplewood Bible Chapel's AWANA program. Living in South City and attending Bethel Community Church, Jeffrey and Theresa have four children: Mariah, Josiah, Eli and Micah. With a BSBA from Southeast Missouri State University and MBA from Saint Louis University, Jeffrey is an Account Director with Thomson Reuters and currently serves on the Board of Education for South City Community School. More important than any degree or position, Jeffrey has a strong desire to build relationships with those around him for the purpose of sharing the good news of Jesus Christ and the sure hope He has to offer. The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few!

Derek Aholt trusted the Lord at a Bible conference as a college student. Sitting in a children's meeting, listening to his future father-in-law Tim McNeal present a chalk talk, Derek clearly saw that works were not the way to salvation as he had previously believed. After he was saved, Derek was convicted of the importance of gathering to the Lord's name according to the New Testament church doctrine.

Derek and his wife Rachel have one daughter (Hannah) and are expecting their second child this summer. He currently works as a civil engineer at POWER Engineers in St. Louis. One of Derek's primary ministries at Lake Charles Bible Chapel is "Kids Club," an outreach that the Lord is blessing by bringing in children from the local neighborhood.
