Nate Bramsen was born and raised in Senegal, West Africa. At the age of 16, God burdened and led him to invest his life into the abused, neglected, and abandoned children of this world for both the sake of time and eternity. After graduating from North Greenville University (South Carolina), he began pioneer work among this demographic of children and in December of 2006, he founded ROCK International (www.rockintl.org). Today he carries out a global itinerant speaking schedule, podcasts, and oversees development projects. In January of 2018, he married Priyanka Mathews (now Bramsen) of Houston, Texas. Their heart is to see this generation become unconditional followers of Jesus Christ.
